Summer Interns bring new energy to Haley House

Six bright-eyed newcomers arrived at Haley House last week to embark on their summer internship. The interns join the live-in community at 23 Dartmouth Street from late May through mid-August and support many aspects of Haley House's work. In addition to helping out in the soup kitchen, each intern is assigned to a specific project such as social media, development, Take Back the Kitchen, Art Is Life Itself, Community Tables, and the McKinley Garden. Join us in welcoming Ashley, Claire, Conor, David, Deena, and Libby!
