This holiday season, join Haley House in celebrating the power of community enriched by food with purpose.

Photos by Gloria Feinstein and Albert Ramirez, with our deepest gratitude.

Dear Friends,

Whether it's Gates at the Bakery Café, Ruby in the Live-in Community, or Henry in the Soup Kitchen, volunteers and staff at Haley House are always cooking food that is good for you. Equally important, folks are always cooking together. We believe in the transformative power of relationships, the innate value of each individual, and the impact of learning through shared experiences.

Since welcoming our first guest into our home forty-six years ago, Haley House has become an organization with many faces. Each "face" we encounter in the soup kitchen, in our permanent housing program, in the garden, or in the bakery café has collectively impacted thousands of others.

In this season of giving, please help Haley House build healthy, sustainable communities - one person at a time.

Sincerely,

Kathe (and everyone at Haley House)
